

DAY 3

1. Story time

Go to

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hNdKEz6p9Qg&t=2s> and listen to the author Kes Gray reading his book Super Daisy and the Peril of Planet Pea.

2. Verbs in the past tense

As we looked at on Monday, verbs are doing, feeling or being words. When they are in the present tense, they usually end in -ing e.g. skipping, playing, dancing. When they are in the past tense, we add the suffix -ed e.g. skipped, played, danced.

You could spend some time changing your present tense -ing words from Monday to past tense -ed verbs. Here are a few examples:

walk	walking	walked
skip	skipping	skipped

3. Verb hunt!

Read Super Daisy's Day. Highlight the verbs in each sentence in Super Daisy's Day. There are 18 to be found! Check with the Answers which are at the end of this document (no peaking before!)

4. Extra challenge

You could complete the adding -ed suffix game found on the home learning hub.

Super Daisy's Day

Daisy filled up her water bottle (with Super lemonade of course!) and tucked it into her special backpack. She pushed open the door of her house and climbed over the fence into the garden of her friends, Dylan and Gaby. They rushed over to meet her. Together, the three children planned what they were going to do with their day. They decided it was time for a race across the rooftops between Super Daisy and her arch-enemy, Cabbage Man! Daisy changed into her Super Daisy costume. She called Cabbage Man on her phone and arranged the challenge. At 10 o'clock the race started. Cabbage Man charged ahead and bounced from roof to roof but Super Daisy leaped over him with a mighty jump and shoved the limp Cabbage to the ground. The sun had steamed him into a mush! The children celebrated and glugged down the super lemonade. Hooray for Super Daisy!
